

January 7th, 2022

Dear Sir,

I received the summons for a civil action that you filed in USDC for the Western District of Texas naming me as defendant (EP22CV0006).

I have no affiliation with, nor have I ever heard of, National Tax Advisory Services. I did look online and saw that someone whose name is the same as mine is listed as the CEO of the LLC, but I assure you that it is not me. I am in no way involved with this company or the calls you may have received.

I have reached out to the court; with whom I am also sharing this communication.

Any information that you can provide to me which will assist me in resolving this situation with National Tax Advisory Services would be sincerely appreciated, as I'd also love to get to the bottom of what's going on here.

I am sorry for your inconvenience but want to plainly restate, that I was in no way responsible for these events.

Sincerely,
Matthew Levy
